DEAD END'S TRAIL FOLLOWED IN N. Y.

Establishment of the facts that the anarchist who lost his life, while attempting to bomb the home of Attorney General Palmer, here, was a member of a hitherto unknown group of terrorists: that immediately prior to his departure from New York for Washington he received a large sum of money, part of which, he spent for a new outfit of clothing, and that he was, or had been, employed in a munitions factory, was announced in a statement by Chief William J. Flynn to New York newspaper men today.

Cloth Identified and Traced. Identification of the cloth from which the man's suit was made, Chief Flynn said, was positive at the mill that wove the cloth. From there, the new head of the bureau of investigation said, the cloth was traced to the clothing manufacturer and to the retail store where the suit was bought a few days before the bomb attempt here.

The hat supposed to have been worn by the dead anarchist was traced to the retail shop where it was bought, as was the suit of underwear, of fairly good quality, and the tie, one of these articles having been picked up by the Washington detectives and police and turned over to the Department of Justice.

Buyer Expensive Outfit. Chief Flynn also said the sandals worn by the dead anarchist were of a special nailless kind required to be worn by employees of two munitions factories and furnished by them to their workmen. These were the sandals on which a New York cobbler placed a pair of rubber heels a few days before the bomb outrage.

Employees of the stores at which the various articles of clothing were bought described the purchaser, the descriptions tallying very closely, Chief Flynn said. The suit retailed at $45; the tie sold for $1.30; the underwear was $1 a garment and the hat retailed at $4.50.

In each store the clerk who sold the articles that Chief Flynn said were positively identified stated the purchaser was wearing noticeably shabby clothing when the purchase was made, thus calling attention to his general appearance.

Await Positive Information. Department of Justice officials said today they had no information from Chief Flynn, and expected none until complete and positive identification of the dead man is made and his associates are taken into custody.

80,000 RAILROAD KEYMEN ORDERED TO ASSIST STRIKE

(Continued from First Page.) Union officials that 600 men had struck, but company officials said the number was much less. The Western Union stating that out of 1,800 employees here only thirteen had joined the strike.

In the Pacific coast cities Western Union officials declared their business was "practically unaffected" by the strike, but Postal company officials admitted that they were somewhat crippled.

W. U. Reports All Going Smoothly. NEW YORK, June 12.—General offices of the Western Union Telegraph Company reported today that traffic was running smoothly on its lines throughout the country, in face of the strike of operators called by the Commercial Telegraphers' Union. No figures were available to show whether there had been an increase or decrease in the number of men absent from work yesterday, which was declared to have been only 144 out of a total of 40,000 employees.

In New York city only twenty-two operators failed to report, some of whom, it was stated, may have been ill and conditions throughout the New York division were said to show an improvement over yesterday.

Postal Says No Interruption. The Postal Telegraph Company reported fewer men out than yesterday throughout the country and traffic being moved without interruption. It was said that all of the operators on duty yesterday reported today, while some of the men on strike yesterday returned to work today.

Union officials here, while admitting that their figures were not official, estimated that approximately 1,100 operators were on strike in New York.

No Change Apparent Here in Wire Strike Situation; Its Effect Is Disputed. Investigation made today by a Star reporter disclosed no apparent change in the telegraphers' strike. Officials of the strikers claim they have paralyzed the service of both the Western Union and Postal telegraph companies, while officials of the telegraph companies say their business is being handled promptly and there are no messages piling up nor are any being sent out of town by the alleged "suit case route," as charged by the strikers.

Women Picket W. U. Office. A dozen or more young women formerly employed by the Western Union in its multiplex system were picketing the Western Union office today with banners.

There was an open meeting of the striking telegraphers in the Perpetual building, at 11th and E streets, yesterday afternoon, attended by about 200 men and women. A general report of the situation was made by President McDonald. Plans for promoting the strike were made by the appointment of three committees: Finance, E. A. Johnson, C. E. Jettison and A. O. Van Fleet; legislative committee, Sam Small and J. E. Anstrom; the third members will be named today; press committee, Sam Small, Clyde Smith and Joseph Hockery; committee to take action on matter of government key men taking the places of strikers: J. E. Denegau, A. S. Price and W. E. Phillips; entertainment, William W. Fitzgerald, Ida Bladd and John Benton.

The Women's Union League has sent the woman strikers assurances that that organization will give whatever assistance is possible.

WHY ROME POLITICIANS KEEP OUT TAXI SERVICE

ROME, May 20 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The horse here has not vacated his position to make room for the automobile. There are still thousands of horse-drawn cabs operating in Rome while there is not a single taxicab.

Two reasons are given for this equine superiority. First, there are 3,000 cab drivers in Rome, according to the municipal statistics. These exercise a considerable influence in the municipal elections of Rome and as a consequence no motor vehicle concessions are granted. The politicians know that in order to retain these 3,000 votes they must be faithful to the horse and an enemy to the "diver."

Besides the supply of gasoline in Italy is not large and to insure enough for the military needs it was found absolutely necessary to discourage as much private motor vehicular traffic as possible.

Engine Company Captain Has Fall. Capt. Edward H. Nohe of engine company No. 24 fell from a scaffold at his home, 1007 North Capitol street, yesterday.
